RESERVATION NEWS

By June Cook

Saturday June 2nd marked another day in the history of the Mixed Blood Group of Affiliated Utes as the first general election was held at Ft Duchesne where the members of the group cast secret ballots to elect a Board of five Directors pursuant to Article 2, Sec 1, of the Constitution and By Laws Results of the election is as follows Lula Murdock, 73 votes, Elizabeth Bumgarner 71 votes Elmer Hackford, 62 votes William C Reed, 81 votes Preston Allen 56 votes

The two members receiving the highest votes shall run for a term of two years and the three members receiving the next highest votes shall run for a term of one year as provided in Art 2 Sec 2 of the Constitution and By Laws Management of the affairs and funds of the Affiliated Ute citizens of the State of Utah shall be vested in the Board of Directors

Superintendent, John O Crow is in Phoenix, Ariz this week on business

Memorial Day the U and O, Post 126 Auxiliary and Legionnaires paid tribute to the war dead Indians of the reservation when they held memorial services at five cemeteries and placed a wreath on the Gold Star mother's grave at Randlett. After the ceremonies approximately fifty of the Post members and their families met at Jenkins Park in Uintah Canyon where they enjoyed a chicken fry

Julius Murray and family of Los Angeles, Calif, visited friends and relatives on the reservation last week Mr Murray left by plane Thursday to resume studies at Vocational school Mrs Murray and children will spend the next week here before returning to their home

A surprise birthday party honored Naturitch Devener Friday evening when ten ladies met at the home of June Cook for the event Guest list included Violet Parriett, Blanch Myore, Lula Murdock, Reva Dean, Thurza McClure, Cleo and LaRae McClure, and the hostesses June Cook and LaJean Richman Prizes went to Thurza McClure, Violet Parriett and Naturitch Devener

Mr and Mrs Gary Murdock and Milton Denver were home from Denver, Colo, to attend the wedding of JoAnn Walker and Woodey Harris

Sports day was held at Ft Duchesne Monday when the clubs from Randlett, Whiterocks and Ft Duchesne participated in softball The Ft Duchesne girls won over the Whiterocks and Randlett combined team and the Ft Duchesne won over the Randlett team Lessons were taught in tennis, archery and other sports and dinner was served to all attending Watermelons were awarded to the winning clubs

An art exhibit was held at the Randlett community bldg Saturday as the Indians displayed their art from the classes that have been conducted each Saturday Mr Smedley, art director from the Univeisity of Utah has been head of the classes Basket weaving, copper, bead and leather work classes will be held every Saturday in the future

Walter Sixkiller, age 14 pitched a no-hitter game for the Legion team as Ft. Duchesne beat Vernal at Saturday's game

Mr. and Mrs Art Workman of Richfield, Mr and Mrs. Preston Allen and Mr and Mrs Dru Allred of Altonah enjoyed an outing at Ouray Sunday

Mr and Mrs Harvey Thompson of Park City and Bill Workman of Salt Lake City spent the holiday with their father, Ammon Workman at Ft. Duchesne

Mr. and Mrs Lyle Larsen of Denver visited friends and relatives here last week, and returned to their home on Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Lucero and George Condie of Salt Lake City visited at the agency on Thursday.

A resolution was adopted by the U&O Business Committee at a special meeting held May 18th to declare curfew hours for minor Indian children and other minor children on the reservation to be 10.00 p m on nights when school follows the next day, and not later than 12:00 midnight on any night unless accompanied by a responsible adult or under supervision of some responsible person, or persons